All eyes on Easter as vendors and buyers set to come together in face of adversity

Resilience of thoroughbred industry put to test from 10am in virtual first for Inglis

BY TIM ROWE | @ANZ\_NEWS

When the opening lot enters the virtual Riverside Stables ring this morning, signalling the start of the most dramatic Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale in the company's 153-year history, Jonathan D'Arcy's overtures from the rostrum are sure to trigger a wave of emotions for all stakeholders connected to the blue chip auction.

The 2020 Easter catalogue offering, widely regarded as the best collection of yearlings in the southern hemisphere each year, has been slashed from 514 lots to 352 as vendors and breeders attempt to navigate their way through treacherous economic conditions sparked by a global coronavirus pandemic.

The remarkable resilience of the thoroughbred industry, one that has often defied wider economic factors in the past, will be tested to the limit in a scenario not broadly thought possible just months ago when rival Magic Millions opened the selling season.

MORNING BRIEFING

Parr on Pohutukawa

Josh Parr will take the ride on Pohutukawa (Medaglia d'Oro) in the Coolmore Legacy Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) as the four-year-old seeks her elusive Group 1 win. James McDonald, who has partnered Pohutukawa at her last three starts, will instead ride three-year-old Funstar (Adelaide), who is returning to 1600m instead of stepping up in trip for the ATC Australian Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m).

Morning Briefing page 8 >>

I'M ALL THE TALK SIRED HIS SECOND WINNER | STALLION WATCH | PAGE 12

<< Continued from page 1 As for what will transpire today from 10am no one can be certain, but Sebastian Hutch, Inglis' general manager of bloodstock sales and marketing, remains optimistic about what will occur over the next two days despite the challenges inflicted by Covid-19.

"Obviously, the world economy is a most unusual place given it is driven not by economic factors but by a consequence of a global pandemic, so people are taking confidence in the fact that we don't have a fundamental economic problem but an economic problem all the same," Hutch said.

"By the same token, there are people who very much envisage life after coronavirus and part of that for people involved in bloodstock will be racing good horses and breeding good horses and Easter represents a fantastic opportunity for people who want to own and race good horses."

Lower Hunter Valley vendor

Evergreen Stud is offering a draft of six yearlings, highlighted by a Frankel (Galileo) filly out of champion New Zealand mare Princess Coup (Encosta De Lago), and proprietor Tony Bott admits to having to revisit valuations on what he might have expected two to three months ago when early sales were buoyant.

But how to put a price tag on valuable bloodstock remains a conundrum for Bott and many of his fellow Easter vendors.

"We are at a little bit of a loss because normally we'd be at the sales complex and you get a chance to have a look at your competition to know what they are all like," Bott said yesterday.

"With this one, we are all virtually confined to working from our own farms, so that hasn't been the case.

"Therefore, it is a little bit hard to say that you think your horse is a nice horse but there might be five others that are better than it in the sale.

"We are adopting an attitude of what we thought three months ago and we are probably marking them down somewhat and that is anything from ten to 40 per cent, just depending on the individual animal."

The first 50 lots offered today will be telling "because I think there's going to be a lot of people sitting back and trying to digest what is in fact taking place," Bott says.

"We are like everyone, we are in uncharted waters to some extent, and I'd probably rather be a buyer than a vendor at this stage but it is what it is and we've got to see if we can make the most of it," he said.

"I think the bigger horses will probably look after themselves - quality always sells. If you've got waterfront real estate it doesn't seem to go down as much as something that's 50 miles inland and that's similar in art auctions or livestock.

"But the middle market is probably going to be the big sufferer because I think some of the syndicators and some of the trainers are probably going to be a bit gun-shy.

because I think there's going to be a lot of people sitting back and trying to digest what is in fact taking place

"Some of the little speculators who are normally there will at the moment be worried about whether they've got a job or haven't got a job and whether their business is going to reopen in a few months time.

"Buying a horse or a share in a horse is one of the furthest things from their mind at the moment."

The depth of the buying bench could be impacted like never before over the next two days but Hutch believes the scenario could also see some new faces on the sign-up forms alongside the well-known identities who generally play at Easter.

"The nature of this sale has meant that fillies, in particular, might have been perceived to be unattainable to people, but now they might present as an opportunity, so we've seen plenty of interest from breeders and stud farm owners in the sale from the point of view of potentially trying to pick up some fillies," he said.

"Similarly, in the case of the colts, we feel that we have a very strong group. Those horses, if they can race at the highest level and be successful at the highest level, hold tremendous value irrespective of the economic circumstances.

"There's still a massive appetite to try and find those really good colts and manage them into winning the best races. That appetite is going to draw people into the market, but quite where it ends up we don't know."

Hutch also pointed to the fact that Doncaster Mile (Gr 1, 1600m) winner Nettoyer (Sebring) and victorious Australian Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) performer Quick Thinker (So You Think) were Easter graduates who on Saturday were successful on one of the biggest days on the Australian racing calendar.

“I think people looking to buy fillies as future broodmares from this sale will have also taken confidence from the fact that of the four Group 1 winners at Randwick, the dams of three of them were sold as yearlings at Easter,” he said.

“Again, it was a great way to advertise the long-term value to be found at this sale.”

Evergreen Stud’s draft comprises two colts and four fillies, three of them by Nettoyer’s sire Sebring (More Than Ready). The Frankel filly, a half-sister to Hong Kong Group 3 winner Thewizardofoz (Redoute’s Choice), is the eighth foal out of Princess Coup, whom Bott’s E Thoroughbreds paid $3 million for at the 2009 Magic Millions Gold Coast National Broodmare Sale.

“She’s a little bit unique to us as, while we have some of the family, we probably won’t get another chance to send the mare back (to the UK) to get another Frankel and she is quite an outstanding specimen,” Bott said of Lot 143.

“Therefore, we will try and set what we feel is a realistic figure without giving her away, but it probably won’t be what we might have been hoping for two months ago.

“Some people might say that’s too much in this market, but the market will tell us that.”

Interest in Evergreen’s draft has picked up in the past week, once it was confirmed that the Easter sale would be conducted online.

Lot 143 Frankel - Princess Coup filly

INGLIS

“The buyers had to regroup and run around, back-tracking and doing farms they hadn’t visited before,” he said.

“Luckily, with the Frankel filly being a very desirable article in our draft, that has dragged some of the buyers in to look.

“Some of the professionals like James Harron and some of the other big buyers, they do every horse, so they were always coming (and others have also made the effort as well).”

AUSTRALIA

Bosson on Te Akau Shark, Probabeel

Opie Bosson

SPORTPIX

Opie Bosson has decided to stay in Australia until the end of the autumn carnival with New Zealand racing on lockdown. Bosson, who is based in Sydney while his wife Emily and his young son Max remain at their Pukekawa base, won Saturday's ATC Australian Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) on Quick Thinker (So You Think) and will chase more feature success with Te Akau Shark (Rip Van Winkle) in the Queen Elizabeth Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) and Probabeel (Savabeel) in the Australian Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m). His ride on Te Akau Shark comes at the expense of another of his regular mounts, Melody Belle (Commands), who will be partnered by Kerrin McEvoy. "At this stage I'm here right to the end of the carnival and I've picked up a few good rides in the next couple of weeks," Bosson said. "I can't do much at home, with the country in lockdown. Emily's taken over the farm so I'll stay here and work. I have to ride winners to pay for everything she breaks. I have been following her farming exploits via social media."

Soft trial for Master Of Wine

Master Of Wine (Maxios) is all set for the Queen Elizabeth Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) after the Hawkes Racing-trained galloper was given an easy trial over 900m at Rosehill yesterday. Never asked for an effort by jockey Tommy Berry, he finished seventh full of running, five and a half lengths off Snitz (Snitzel). Suspension will mean that Berry is unable to ride him, so Tim Clark will take over the reins. He is currently priced at $8 for the $2 million race, with the market headed by the international raiders Addeybb (Pivotal) and Danon Premium (Deep Impact), each at $4. Master Of Wine has been unbeaten in his past four starts, and comes into the race off the back of an authoritative win in the Sky High Stakes (Gr 3, 2000m) on March 14 on a heavy track at Rosehill.

Carif to miss Sydney Cup

Promising stayer Carif (So You Think) will miss the Sydney Cup (Gr 1, 3200m), with the Peter and Paul Snowden-trained galloper to spell ahead of a Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) campaign. Carif finished second in last Saturday's Chairman's Quality (Gr 2, 2600m) behind Raheen House (Sea The Stars) in what was his third run in four weeks on a wet track. Carif sports the same silks as both his sire and dam, Group 1 winners So You Think (High Chaparral) and Norzita (Thorn Park), with the four-year-old to attempt to go two better than his sire in the Melbourne Cup.

Melbourne for border hopper Hanger

As Albury trainer Mitchell Beer is based on the NSW side of the Murray River, racing opportunities in Victoria have been curtailed.

The trainer is reluctant to send runners across the border unless they warrant the journey. Beer cannot cross the border himself, and so is tasked with getting help from one of his Victorian peers. As such, he will rely on a Caulfield-based trainer when he sends Hanger (O'Reilly) to race in the Victoria Handicap (Gr 3, 1400m). "Fortunately being so close to the Hume Highway we have all the transport companies pretty much come through every night. So we can put him on one and he can go down to a trainer at Caulfield on Thursday, race on Saturday and then come home," said Beer. Saturday's Caulfield race has attracted 32 nominations and has had its prize-money cut to $128,000, due to the implications the coronavirus has had on wagering and race day attendance.

Kiamichi retired

Golden Slipper (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Kiamichi (Sidestep) has been retired. Bred and raced by Godolphin, she led home a trifecta in the race for Sheikh Mohammed last year. Her sire Sidestep was runner-up in the Slipper while she is out of Ouachita (Canny Lad), herself a daughter of the 1990 Golden Slipper winner. Cummings said of the filly: "She was our first two-year-old winner that season and she just grew stronger and better as her preparations progressed. I have nothing but praise for her win in such a high-pressure race." He added: "The Golden Slipper is a race that shapes the breed in Australia and she now gets her chance to contribute to that tradition." Kiamichi retires with over $2.3 million in prize-money with three wins from 13 starts. Vin Cox, managing director of Godolphin's Australian operation, said the filly retired sound and healthy. A mating has yet to be decided.

Morton not conceding Derby to Tuscan Queen

With two contenders in Saturday's WATC Derby (Gr 2, 2400m), trainer Dan Morton is not prepared to concede the feature to top filly Tuscan Queen (Fastnet Rock). Tuscan Queen, trained by Grant and Alana Williams in the colours of Bob Peters, has proven to be the dominant staying three-year-old in Perth, winning the Western Australian Oaks (Gr 3, 2400m) comfortably as an odds-on favourite last time out. However, Morton remains hopeful that Samantha's Twitch (Sebring) or Showaddywaddy (Blackfriars) can turn the tables after finishing fourth and sixth respectively in the Oaks. "They both didn't get much luck in the WA Oaks," Morton said. "Samantha's Twitch got held up at a vital time and Showaddywaddy was just behind. They were closing strongly and should have finished further than they did. They both have trained on and I really can't be any happier with them. I'm certainly not putting up the white flag to Tuscan Queen."

Stakes race possible for Flying Start's Sebring filly

Queensland syndicator Cameron Bennett of Flying Start Syndications appears to have another smart filly by the late Widden Stud sire Sebring (More Than Ready) under his management after juvenile Rose Of Sebring scored by a big margin at Ballarat. Purchased by Bennett and Pinhook Bloodstock's Dave Mee for $95,000 from last year's Inglis Classic Yearling Sale from the Highgrove Stud draft, Rose Of Sebring backed up her luckless debut third at Sandown to score by five and a half lengths on a Heavy 10 surface under Luke Nolen and trainers Lindsay Park. Connections could now aim the lightly raced filly for the Anzac Day Stakes (Listed, 1400m) at Flemington on April 25. Flying Start Syndications also raced MRC Thousand Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) winner Amphitrite (Sebring) who was sold for a large seven-figure sum to Japan last year as a broodmare.

Mirage Dancer spelled

Mirage Dancer (Frankel) is set to be spelled after placing in the Chairman's Quality (Gr 2, 2600m) at Randwick on Saturday. Kept on the go since December 2018, trainers Trent Busuttin and Natalie Young believe he will thrive for the break and will then be aimed at the Caulfield Cup (Gr 1, 2400m), in which he finished third last year. "He deserves this break and he'll love resting in the paddock and freshening up. We'll aim towards the Caulfield Cup again following how well he went last year," Busuttin said about his galloper. "There's obviously a chance that the Japanese and European gallopers won't get here for the spring either, so that would obviously be a blessing for us as well."

McDonald confirms Tim Martin partnership

Trainer Clinton McDonald is predicting a buyer's market in the upcoming Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale. The sale, which begins today, has been forced to auction the catalogued lots online due to the Covid-19 outbreak. McDonald, who is set to go into partnership with Tim Martin for the new season, believes the current economic climate could favour buyers. "We will definitely be having a look," said McDonald. "It's a sad thing. It's their number one sale, it's like the Melbourne Cup for the breeders, it's what they get their main horses ready for." He added: "In these times, it's going to be a buyer's market, which is good because it hasn't been a buyer's market for a number of years."

Newitt concerned about Tassie racing

Tasmania's most prolific jockey Craig Newitt has expressed his concerns for the future of the state's racing industry after it was shut down by government as part of coronavirus restrictions. "There's a lot of confusion," Newitt told RSN927. "Everybody understands the seriousness of the situation but every requirement that was handed to us, we were doing, not just thoroughbreds, but all three codes. We didn't even get a chance to put our hand up and put up suggestions of what we could do about it. With no racing, a lot of these people are treading water without getting ahead. If there's no carrot at the end of the week to race for prize money, they simply cannot afford to keep these animals in training. The longer this lasts the more crippling it is to the industry in Tassie."

Mott to launch comeback

Injured jockey Jamie Mott hopes to be back at the races by June at the latest. During his rehabilitation, he welcomed a new addition to the family with the birth of his second son Charlie. "It's an exciting time for us and my wife was amazing, I'm very lucky," he said. Mott will have been off for five months this Wednesday, after taking a heavy fall involving four horses at Cranbourne. He injured both legs in the incident, fracturing both ankles and breaking his right Tibia and Fibia. After undergoing two surgeries, he has been given the green light to resume trackwork. "My leg is feeling a lot better after my second surgery in February. They had to insert a 15mm rod into my right leg and it's healed well and is feeling good, so the surgeon has cleared me to return to work shortly," Mott said.

Randwick track rider injured

A trackwork rider for the Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott stable was injured after a fall at Randwick yesterday morning. Alana Pearson, who is the regular trackwork rider of Group 1-winning mare Con Te Partiro (Scat Daddy), suffered what was described as a "nasty fracture dislocation of her shoulder" by Racing NSW's Dr David Duckworth. Taken to St Vincent's Hospital, she is to be transported to Sydney Adventist Hospital for reconstructive surgery this morning.

Barriers against Button in Capricornia feature

Trainer Tom Button has been afflicted by poor barriers in his quest to win his first Capricornia Yearling Sales Classic (1200m) at Rockhampton today. The Bank Manager (Sidereus) ran second in 2017 and Ruby Georgie (Sidereus) ran third in 2018 for Button. This year, he has three runners but all are drawn wide. Goodbye Earl (Sidereus) will come out of barrier 18, Miss Lot Won (Sidereus) in 17 and The Silver Lady (Sidereus) is in 13. "It's a wide open race again this year and I just think The Silver Lady is my best chance. She deserves to be one of the favourites while Miss Lot Won has the form around Away Game who won the Magic Millions," Button said.

JobKeeper program assists Qld race clubs

The federal government's JobKeeper scheme is likely to save Queensland race clubs from massive financial losses and possible closure. An estimated 500 full-time and casual Queensland race club employees have been stood down or laid off in the past month as coronavirus restrictions take hold. The federal government has announced plans to pay $1500 a fortnight per employee to subsidise wages for businesses. Brisbane Racing Club chairman Neville Bell said it would be a great benefit for clubs, which are big employers in Queensland. "It has been heartbreaking to let staff go. But this should help us keep going and retain workers," Bell said. "We are still going to finish well in the red but at least this gives us hope."

Mackay transferred to Rockhampton

A meeting set down for Mackay next Tuesday has been transferred to Rockhampton due to a minor track renovation at the Queensland course. The Mackay Turf Club expects the course to be safe for a return to racing ahead of its scheduled meeting on Tuesday, April 28.

NEW ZEALAND

Little Avondale embraces Easter sale

Little Avondale Stud believes that a long-held focus on digital and social media as well as being able to rely on some enduring relationships will allow the farm to make the most of the Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale, even despite the extraordinary circumstances under which the auction is being held. "We're lucky to have some great contacts in the media and filming industry and that's been teamed up with our LA crew who keep our Facebook and Instagram feed full of everything you need and want to know about these yearlings. It's all been pulled together for this sale," said Little Avondale's Sam Williams. Little Avondale Stud is sending three fillies through the virtual ring: a Capitalist (Written Tycoon) filly out of Listed winner Tie Me Down (Pins), a Savabeel (Zabeel) filly out of a half-sister to top Hong Kong miler Glorious Days (Hussonet) and a Tavistock (Montjeu) filly out of Adrian Knox Stakes (Gr 3, 2000m) winner Full Of Spirit (Flying Spur), a half-sister to Champion New Zealand filly Bonneval (Makfi).

ASIA

Chau to Hong Kong, Van Niekerk sacked

South African rider Grant Van Niekerk has been sensationally sacked by the Hong Kong Jockey Club, with the Club also summoning South Australian-based jockey Jerry Chau back to his home town to fill the unexpected vacancy in the ranks. Van Niekerk, who has ridden 37 winners this season in Hong Kong and sits a clear fifth in their jockeys' championship, was delicensed "as a result of a conduct-related matter which does not pertain to any race riding or other racing integrity-related matter," the Club said in a statement. Chau will return as a ten-pound apprentice to the Hong Kong roster. He currently sits fifth in the South Australian premierships with 62 wins this season.

Moore considering options

The coronavirus lockdown in Singapore, which begins today, has jockey Daniel Moore weighing up his future in the Lion City, with the Victorian considering a return to Australia as soon as this week. "I'm looking at all options now," Moore told Racing.com. "Obviously quarantine rules in Australia have come into effect so I'd have to do two weeks when I landed, and obviously flights at the moment are hard to secure. It is something I'll really look into the next 24 to 48 hours. We are employed by the Turf Club to be jockeys and we can't be employed to ride trackwork. At the moment we are unsure if we're allowed to, or eligible, to claim any benefits from the government. And the Turf Club, their details are pretty sketchy at the moment, they don't really know where they are at themselves. It's a pretty concerning time for most of us. A lot of us don't have huge amounts of money, chipping away at and burning for the sake of sitting around for two months."

Bloodstockauction.com expands into US

Online sales platform bloodstockauction.com is expanding into the United States, with former Townsville Turf Club chief Mindy Powell-Hodges to lead the American expansion. Operating in Australia since 2014 and New Zealand since 2016, bloodstockauction.com has seen more than 13,000 horses change hands through its virtual sales ring. The first US catalogue will be live from 7pm US Eastern time on May 7, with the final countdown to commence at 7pm US Eastern time on May 12.

The 2020 INGLIS AUSTRALIAN EASTER YEARLING SALE will create history as the first major yearling auction anywhere in the world to be hosted solely on a digital platform.

Traditionally the blue riband of yearling sales, Inglis Easter has been responsible for plenty of Group 1 winners throughout its history. In the last two years alone, the list has included THE AUTUMN SUN, MERCHANT NAVY, ESTIJAAB, TRAPEZE ARTIST, EXCEEDANCE, LOVING GABY, SUPER SETH, RUSSIAN REVOLUTION and FUNSTAR.

ANZ BLOODSTOCK NEWS previews the upcoming sale in this supplement, with all your essential statistics, first season stallion profiles and features on some of the protagonists ahead of this year's auction. Lewis Lesbirel catches up with Rupert Legh, who has had plenty of success in the last 12 months with Inglis Easter graduates like ALABAMA EXPRESS, while Legh also provides an update on beloved Easter alumnus CHAUTAUQUA. Scott Sanbrook speaks to Oliver Koolman, who has struck success at both ends of the spectrum at Easter with THE AUTUMN SUN, EGG TART, YOUNGSTAR and FUNSTAR.

Stay tuned to ANZ BLOODSTOCK NEWS over the coming days for the latest news, features and statistics surrounding this most extraordinary of sales. We wish all buyers and vendors the very best of luck and the very best of health at this testing time.

THE LATEST NEWS FROM THE STALLION WORLD INCLUDING NEW STAKES WINNERS AND LEADING SIRE TABLES

New winners

I'm All The Talk - Western Australia-based first season stallion I'm All The Talk (Stratum) sired his second juvenile winner last week when Em Tee Aye (2 g ex Azita by Oratorio) took out the Amelia Park Plate (1400m) at Ascot. Trained by Trevor Andrews, Em Tee Aye had been runner-up at his previous start at Bunbury before breaking through by three quarters of a length over No Surrender (Universal Ruler) and Queen Brown (Patronize). Em Tee Aye's half-sister by Playing God (Blackfriars) was bought by Robert Gulberti from Mungrup Stud at the Magic Millions Perth Yearling Sale in February for $60,000. I'm All The Talk, who stands at Mungrup Stud for a fee of $5,500 (inc GST), is also the sire of the twice-winning, stakes-placed filly Watch Me Dance.

Super One - Lucky Shadow (2 f ex Tiger Eyes by Choisir) gave her sire Super One (I Am Invincible) a second individual winner when she won a 1000-metre maiden on debut at Tamworth. The Bob Milligan-trained filly jumped well under Keagan Latham from the outside gate but found herself midfield and wide. Upon straightening, she chased resolutely, getting up in the final strides to defeat Mischief Managed (Spill The Beans) by a neck, with Bay Of Bengal (Sepoy) two and a half lengths away in third. Bred by Fairhill Farm's Mike O'Donnell and sold for $15,000 at the 2018 Inglis Australian Weanling Sale, the filly was then reoffered in the Highway session of the Inglis Classic Yearling Sale where she brought the same price to the bid of Milligan. Former Singapore champion Super One stands at Newgate Farm. Last season he covered 169 mares at a fee of $11,000 (inc GST).

Vancouver - Coolmore's first season sire Vancouver (Medaglia d'Oro) registered his third individual winner when the stakes-performed Postcode (2 c ex Never Forget by Westerner) broke his maiden at Hawkesbury. Asked to carry 62 kilograms in the 1300-metre maiden handicap, the Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott-trained colt - who brought in solid form around yesterday's Group 1 placegetters Prague (Redoute's Choice) and Mamaragan (Wandjina) - led from pillar to post, scoring an easy win by three and a half lengths. Vancouver last year stood at Jerry's Plains for a fee of $44,000 (inc GST), covering 138 mares.

New Group / Grade 1 winners

Redoute's Choice - The remarkable Redoute's Choice (Danehill) produced his 38th Group 1 winner when King's Legacy (2 c ex Breakfast In Bed by Hussonet) took out the Inglis Sires (registered as the ATC Sires' Produce Stakes) (Gr 1, 1400m) at Randwick. Redoute's Choice died last year at his long-term home, Arrowfield Stud, at the age of 22, with 26 confirmed live foals in his final crop set for next year's yearling sales.

Sebring - Widden Stud's late stallion Sebring (More Than Ready) recorded his sixth Group 1 winner when Nettoyer (6 m ex Cleanup by Dehere) scored a sweeping success in the Doncaster Mile (Gr 1, 1600m). Sebring has 150 live foals as part of his final crop, born last year.

So You Think - So You Think (High Chaparral) broke new ground, siring his first Group 1 winner at 2400 metres and his sixth overall when Quick Thinker (3 c ex Acouplamas by Al Maher) won the ATC Australian Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) at Randwick on Saturday. Coolmore Stud's So You Think only raced at that trip once, finishing fourth to Danedream (Lomitas) in the 2011 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe (Gr 1, 2400m). So You Think stood for $38,500 (inc GST) at Coolmore Stud last season, covering 234 mares.

New stakes winners

Declaration Of War - A stellar season for Declaration Of War (War Front) continued when he recorded his 26th individual stakes winner after Voyage Warrior (4 g ex Chaleur by Stravinsky) scored an upset win in the Sprint Cup (Gr 2, 1200m) at Sha Tin. Declaration Of War has already had a Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) winner in Vow And Declare, Victoria Derby (Gr 1, 2500m) winner in Warning and a Summer Stakes (Gr 1, 8f) victor in Decorated Invader since the start of the southern hemisphere season and Voyage Warrior joined the ranks of his stakes winners with Sunday's Sprint Cup score. The Ricky Yiu-trained Voyage Warrior found himself in front under Vincent Ho, as hot favourite Aethero (Sebring) missed the start, and he recorded a gutsy all-the-way victory. Hot King Prawn (Denman) finished second, three-quarters of a length from the winner, while Thanks Forever (Duporth) was a further half-length away in third.

Dundeel - Arrowfield Stud's Dundeel (High Chaparral) registered his tenth individual stakes winner when Entente (3 g ex Nextess by Stratum) scored a gritty win in the Carbine Club Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m). It was expected to be a day in which Dundeel's Group 1-winning three-year-olds Castelveccchio or Super Seth rose to the fore, but instead it was Entente who carried the flag, stepping up in class from an 1800-metre maiden win to score a first stakes success. Purchased for $105,000 by Shaun Dwyer at the 2018 Inglis Melbourne Premier Sale from the Bombora Downs draft, Entente had one trial for Dwyer before shifting north to Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott. Entente held off the late surge of Bottega (Snitzel) to score by a neck, with Power Scheme (Fiorente) a length and a half away in third. Dundeel stood for $66,000 (inc GST) this season, covering 209 mares.

Gingerbread Man - Former Singapore champion Gingerbread Man (Shamardal) celebrated the biggest win of his stallion career when Ima Single Man (2 g ex Single Spice by Not A Single Doubt) scored an upset victory in the Karrakatta Plate (Gr 2, 1200m). Ima Single Man, bred and raced by Yarradale Stud, gave Gingerbread Man his fourth individual stakes winner in taking out the Karrakatta Plate. He prevailed in a tight photo over Watch Me Dance

(I'm All The Talk) to remain unbeaten after two starts, with Dark Assault (Statue Of Liberty) not far away in third. Gingerbread Man stood at Yarradale for $4,400 (inc GST) last year, serving 20 mares.

Hallowed Crown - Golden Rose (Gr 1, 1400m) winner Hallowed Crown (Street Sense) landed his first stakes winner from his first crop with Colette (3 f ex Libretto by Singpiel) taking the Adrian Knox Stakes (Gr 3, 2000m) at Randwick. The Godolphin-owned filly defeated Toffee Tongue (Tavistock) by two and three-quarter lengths with Quintessa (Pierro) a further three-quarters of a length back in third. The former Darley stallion, who has recently been relocated to Twin Hills Stud, has had 70 runners for 32 winners, but the promising Colette was his first at stakes grade. She is likely to have her first attempt at the highest level next weekend in the ATC Australian Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m). Hallowed Crown will stand for a fee of $11,000 (inc GST) this year.

Not A Single Doubt - The recently-retired Not A Single Doubt (Redoute's Choice) produced his 71st individual stakes winner when Doubtland (2 c ex Miss Sharapova by Ustinov) scored an emphatic victory in the Kindergarten Stakes (Gr 3, 1100m) at Randwick. Purchased for $1.1 million by Orbis Bloodstock from the Arrowfield Stud draft at the Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale, the Michael, Wayne and John Hawkes-trained colt debuted with a strong win on the Kensington track last month. He remained unbeaten with his four-length Kindergarten win under Brenton Avdulla, defeating Jerle (Exceed And Excel) and Not An Option (Not A Single Doubt). In his final season at Arrowfield Stud, Not A Single Doubt covered 94 mares at a fee of $110,000 (inc GST).

Shamus Award - Cox Plate winner Shamus Award (Snitzel) sired his sixth individual stakes winner with Shamino's (4 g ex Elumino by El Moxie) success in the Manihi Classic (Listed, 1100m) at Morphettville. Bred by David Brook, who races the horse in the name of his family's Saddlers Knife syndicate, the Phillip Stokes-trained Shamino came with a strong run to defeat favourite Garner (Barbados) by a long neck, with Hard Empire (Hard Spun) a head away in third. Shamus Award stands at Rosemont Stud, where his 2019 fee was $11,000 (inc GST). Last season, he served 149 mares.

Snitzel - Three-time Australian Champion Sire Snitzel (Redoute's Choice) is on the cusp of another milestone as he stands one away from a century of individual stakes winners. Meuse (3 f ex Precious Lorraine by Encosta De Lago) took her sire a step closer with her victory in the Laelia Stakes (Listed, 1600m) at Morphettville. An important lead-up to next month's Australasian Oaks (Gr 1, 2000m), the Anthony Freedman-trained Meuse prevailed under a top Jason Holder ride to defeat Wings Of Pastrami (Supreme Class) by a nose, with the winner's stablemate Realm Of Flowers (So You Think) a length away in third. Snitzel, who is in contention for his fourth straight title, stood at Arrowfield Stud last season for $220,000 (inc GST), serving 141 mares.

Written Tycoon - Woodside Park Stud's Written Tycoon (Iglesia) produced his 33rd individual stakes winner when the consistent Media Baron (5 g ex Silentium by Fimiston) scored a first black-type success in the Old Comrade Stakes (Listed, 1600m) for trainer David Harrison. Sent off as favourite, Media Baron scored by a length over Yeah Dardy (Demerit) with Wrinkly (Saxon) a further neck away in third. Bred and co-owned by Des De Lergie, Media Baron has now earned almost $460,000 in prize-money. Written Tycoon last year stood for $110,000 (inc GST), covering 136 mares.

Zebedee - The late Zebedee (Invincible Spirit) scored his tenth individual stakes winner and his first in Australia when Ecumenical (2 f ex Amalgamate by Zenno Rob Roy) won the Dequetteville Stakes (Listed, 1050m) at Morphettville yesterday. Ecumenical was bought by trainer Mick Huxtable for $14,000 out of the Mill Park Stud draft at last year's Magic Millions Adelaide Yearling Sale. Zebedee first made the journey to Australia for the 2015 breeding season, remaining at Cornerstone Stud from the 2017 breeding season until his death in October last year. In a shortened season, he only covered four mares this season at a fee of $9,900 (inc GST).

Ima Single Man's good turn in Karrakatta Plate

WWW.TWBA.NET.AU

Saturday's G2 Karrakatta Plate winner Ima Single Man is the perfect example of one good turn deserving another in racing.

Ima Single Man is a homebred for Yarradale Stud and he gave owner Ron Sayers a fourth Karrakatta victory at Ascot following Valour Road (2018), Brava Fortune (2008) and Born Priceless (2001).

Ascot-based Chris Gangemi recalled how he came to train the son of Yarradale sire Gingerbread Man who did best in a blanket finish at Ascot. He sat on the speed to defeat Watch Me Dance (I'm All The Talk) and Dark Assault (Statue Of Liberty) by a nose and a neck. Odds-on favourite Gemma's Son (Snippetson) was another half-length away fourth.

"Just after the sales last year, Ron came down to see if his grand-daughter (Olivia) could use our pool for her show-horses," Gangemi remembered. "When they were leaving, he asked me how much? I said 'Don't be silly' so he came back and told me to pick out two colts from the list of Yarradale yearlings that had been passed-in at the Magic Millions.

"My brother Michael had liked Ima Single Man but the reserve was $60,000. He wasn't willing to pay that money but jumped at the opportunity when we were given the chance to train him."

Gangemi had also done a good turn by jockey Jordan Turner when the former Perth

Ima Single Man (yellow cap)

apprentice returned home after battling injuries and lack of opportunities in Victoria. "It's unbelievable. We've won a Karrakatta," Gangemi beamed. "I'm very appreciative to Ron and also rapt for Jordie. I didn't give him any instructions and he got it just right."

The COVID-19 lockdown meant Yarradale manager Bernie Hamill watched the Karrakatta from her office at the Gidgegannup stud while Sayers was barracking at home with his wife Lynn.

"It's a fantastic result for Ron and all the team," Hamill said. "Ima Single Man didn't have any faults as a yearling and we thought the reserve might have been a bit high when he was passed-in. But I argued he was a nice colt and was worth it.

"He won first-up in an Ascot midweek maiden last month and we were hoping that would be enough to make the final field.

"Gingerbread Man didn't get the numbers in his early books because we had just bought War Chant (USA) outright after initially shuttling him from Kentucky. He was a priority and we were also launching City Place (USA)."

An Australian-bred son of Shamardal, Gingerbread Man was Singapore's Champion 2yo & 3yo prior to arriving in Western Australia.

The Karrakatta winner is his fourth in black-type following Group 1 galloper Achernar Star, ill-fated sprinter Neurological and LR Fairetha Stakes winner Red Can Man who completed a double for their sire in the final race at Ascot on Saturday.

Ima Single Man's dam Single Spice (Not A Single Doubt) won the LR Supremacy Stakes at Ascot in 2011 and was fourth home in that year's Karrakatta Plate won by Night War. She was given a year off this season after foaling a filly by Gingerbread Man in October.

The other Yarradale yearling picked out by Gangemi is the War Chant colt from Xaaffair that didn't make a $100,000 reserve at the 2019 Magic Millions. He's been named Hollywood Fling and has been kept a colt unlike Ima Single Man who was a bit of a handful during his early preps.

Gangemi could afford to see the funny side of Ima Single Man's big pay-day in the $500,000 Karrakatta. "Our horse-pool cost $200,000 and is hardly ever used," he laughed. "But it's worth it now!"

Olivia (Shore) is making the most of swimming her eventers having won two new cars at the Equestrian In The Park competition held annually next to the Perth CBD. And she's still not old enough to drive!
